

Course Introduction

The internationally recognized ISO standards are regularly reviewed and updated. Nine years after the publication of the previous version of "ISO/IEC 27001", brand new standards have been released. This 1-day course is led by an expert instructor with over a decade of experience and familiarity with the ISO resources. Find out what you missed and what to do next.

Course Objectives

- To learn information security risk management
- To learn "82+11" information security controls
- To learn how to use attributes based on the newest ISO/IEC 27002
- To explore resources on ISMS

Course Duration

- 1 Days

Course Prerequisite

- Knowledge of the previous version of ISO/IEC 27001

Target Group

• Certified ISO/IEC 27001 organizations, Organizations aiming to comply with ISO/IEC 27001, Consultant, Auditor

Course Outline

Day 1

- The myths surrounding ISO/IEC 27001
- Risk management framework (Only the part that is often misunderstood)
- ISO management system components (Only the part that is often misunderstood)
- "82" information security controls (Only the part that is often misunderstood)
- 11 new information security controls

For More Information & Registration, Please Contact Training Division

Tel:(66) 2253-4736, Fax:(66) 2253-4737, Hotline:(66) 86-325-7129, E-mail: registration@acisonline.net

- Using attributes
- Transition to ISO/IEC 27001:2022
- Recommended resources on ISMS

Official Training Partner

For More Information & Registration, Please Contact Training Division

Tel: (66) 2253-4736, Fax: (66) 2253-4737, Hotline: (66) 86-325-7129, E-mail: registration@acisonline.net